NEGOTIATED SERVICE AGREEMENT

Docket No. CP2011-4

MOTION OF THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE FOR TEMPORARY RELIEF
(November 15, 2013)

In Order No. 1856, issued October 23, 2013, the Commission granted the Postal Service's request for a temporary extension of the contract in the instant docket, until November 28, 2013. The Postal Service and the customer have been working diligently to reach a new agreement on an amendment extending this contract for two additional years, which would avoid any interruption in the Postal Service's ability to provide this customer access to negotiated rates. However, the Postal Service and the customer were unable to reach an agreement on this amendment in time to file it with the Commission more than 15 days prior to the November 28, 2013, expiration date.

Nevertheless, the Postal Service and the customer have now signed the amendment, and the Postal Service expects to file it with the Commission within the next week. Because of the timing of the regulatory process, there will be a window between the expiration of the existing contract in this docket and the effective date of the amendment, while the Commission completes its review. Thus, the customer continues to face the prospect of an interruption in its access to negotiated rates as a result of the processes that it must participate in when it does business with the Postal Service, rather than with one of the Postal Service's competitors.

To avoid this result, the Postal Service respectfully requests that the Commission grant an additional brief extension to allow the existing contract to remain in effect until such time as the Commission is able to complete its review of the forthcoming amendment. Thus, the proposed extension would only last for a finite and relatively short period of time. In conclusion, for the reasons discussed above, and in consideration of the customers' business continuity, the Postal Service hereby moves for temporary relief to allow the existing contract to remain on the competitive products list.

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
